ASIAN : Stocks cautious on trade, Syria anxiety; dollar near six-week highs

Asian stocks were cautiously higher on Friday ahead of the U.S. earnings season and as investors pondered the implications of geopolitical tensions in the Middle East and the prospect of a global trade war. U.S. President Donald Trump's tendency to change his mind over key policy and political issues has fuelled wild market gyrations in recent weeks. Spreadbetters pointed to a largely muted start for Europe, with FTSE futures a shade higher FFIc1 and DAX futures FDXc1 up 0.2 percent. E-Mini futures for the S&P500 ESc1 were unchanged as were Dow futures 1YMc1. Investors were also reviewing mixed data from China which showed March exports unexpectedly fell 2.7 percent from a year earlier while imports jumped more than forecast. While the figures pointed to robust demand from the world's top consumer of crude, copper and iron ore, they left the country with a rare trade deficit of $4.98 billion for the month, the first since last February. MSCI's broadest index of Asia-Pacific shares outside Japan .MIAPJ0000PUS was up a slim 0.1 percent, having risen as much as 0.5 percent in morning trading. (Reuters)

CAMBODIA : Siem Reap hotel beats the world's best

Cambodia's Viroth's Hotel, based in the province of Siem Reap, has come out top of the 2018 Best Hotels in the world for travellers, as rated by TripAdvisor. "Chic, tranquil, green and luxurious oasis. Friendly, helpful and yet unobtrusive service. Viroth's is not just a great place to see the stunning temples, but a destination in its own right," TripAdvisor says. Viroth's Hotel is a joint venture between local and foreign investors and has been in operation since 2015. Hotel manager Saay Sokross said he got the call from TripAdvisor in the US that his hotel topped the list for the 2018 Best Hotel of the World. "It is unbelievable for this recognition because we didn't apply for anything. First, we thought someone just call to cheat us but once we saw it on CNN, we were very surprised," he said. "They rated us is mainly on the best quality of service and the way that we work and lead our people here. "We always educate our staff to give better service and products to all customers who stay here.” Mr Sokross said most customers were from Europe because he had been promoting the hotel there. (Khmer Times)

CAMBODIA : Demand for Cambodian cashews on the rise

Demand for Cambodian cashew nuts remains robust in 2018, with the price of the commodity in the global market having experienced moderate growth in recent months, according to an official from the Ministry of Agriculture. Kong Pheach, director of the agro-industry department at the ministry, told Khmer Times that the price of cashews is higher than last year, while production of the commodity has also expanded. Demand continues to rise, he said, explaining that more plantations are popping up around the country to meet it. “The price of agricultural products – including cashew nuts, mango, rubber, and cassava – is better this year than in 2017,” he said. With more than 140,000 hectares of cashew plantations, Cambodia produced over 140,000 tonnes of the commodity last year. The number of cashew plantations continues to expand in 2018, he explained. (Khmer Times)

CAMBODIA : New trade expo to showcase products from China’s Sichuan

China’s southwestern province of Sichuan will be the focus of a trade exhibition to be held in Phnom Penh later this year, an event aimed at promoting bilateral trade and investment between the Chinese province and the kingdom. Li Dong Chun, secretary general of the Sichuan Association, said at a press conference in Phnom Penh yesterday that the expo will be hosted this June in Phnom Penh’s Diamond Island. “The Sichuan-Cambodia Trade Exhibition will be joined by many companies from Sichuan, particularly companies that specialise on construction materials and furniture,” Mr Li said, pointing out also that attendants will be able to buy items at discounted prices. Speaking during the same press conference, Mao Thora, secretary of state at the Ministry of Commerce, said the Sichuan-Cambodia Trade Expo will enhance economic ties with Sichuan and with China as a whole. (Khmer Times)

CHINA : China vows to open as Lagarde warns against protectionism

China said yesterday it would further open its financial markets in the latest apparent attempt to cool economic tensions with the US, as IMF chief Christine Lagarde warned the world trade system was in danger of being “torn apart” by protectionism. China’s securities regulator said foreign investors would be able to buy more Chinese stocks through existing programmes linking Hong Kong’s bourse with mainland exchanges, and that it will also “strive” to establish a similar link between Shanghai and London this year. Central Bank Governor Yi Gang, speaking at the Boao Forum for Asia on the southern Chinese resort island of Hainan, also said Beijing would fast-track previously announced plans to remove limits on foreign shareholdings in Chinese financial institutions. Foreign firms will be allowed to own as much as 51 percent of joint ventures in the securities, funds and futures industries, up from the current 49 percent. (Khmer Times)

CHINA : Chinese firm plans aquaculture investment

Chinese-owned Jin Yu Tang Aquaculture (Cambodia) Co plans to invest $100 million in freshwater and seawater aquaculture projects in Preah Sihanouk and Koh Kong provinces to feed local and international demand. The investment was announced during a meeting with Veng Sakhon, the Minister of Agriculture. Jin Yu Tang intends to invest in aquaculture projects in Koh Kong’s Sre Ambel district, which will spread over an area of 240 hectares. Likewise, deep-sea breeding and hatching projects are planned for Si-hanouville’s Koh Rong Samloem island, which will cover 2,000 hectares. “The projects focus on the supply, distribution, research and development of aquaculture technology in Cambodia in line with international standards,” Mr Sakhon said, adding that total investment will equal $100 million and that 430 new jobs will be generated. The company is now in the process of registering with the Ministry of Commerce and is due to submit a master plan for its investment to the Council for the Development of Cambodia in upcoming months. (Khmer Times)

US : US to review trade preferences for India, Indonesia and Kazakhstan

The United States said on Thursday (Apr 12) it was considering revoking import preferences for India, Indonesia and Kazakhstan over concerns about trade barriers and worker rights. Exports from those countries could lose duty-free access to the US market if the US Trade Representative decides the countries have violated the conditions of the Generalized System of Preferences.

"GSP provides an important tool to help enforce the Trump Administration's key principles of free and fair trade across the globe," Deputy USTR Jeffrey Gerrish said in a statement. "We hope that India, Indonesia and Kazakhstan will work with us to address the concerns that led to these new reviews." President Donald Trump has made trade central to his presidency, roiling markets and upsetting fellow Republicans by threatening to impose steep tariffs and scrap trade deals he says have undermined US workers and industry. He has yet to act on his harshest threats, however. (Channel News Asia )

SINGAPORE :        Singapore watchdog sets interim terms for Uber-Grab deal

Singapore's competition watchdog on Friday outlined a number of interim measures as it continued investigation into ride-hailing firm Grab's deal to buy Uber Technologies' business in the city-state. The Competition and Consumer Commission of Singapore said the measures include preventing Grab to take over operational data from Uber to enhance its market position, adding that Uber would continue to operate in Singapore until May 7 to smoothen the transition. Other measures include ensuring that drivers are not subjected to 'exclusivity agreements' and making sure the ride-hailing firms maintain their pre-merger pricing and commission levels. Uber is selling its Southeast Asian business to bigger local rival Grab, marking the U.S. company's second retreat from an Asian market. The deal, however, is under regulatory scrutiny. (Reuters)
