Hong Kong-owned Gold Whale Co Ltd on Wednesday launched its fund management business as it became the fourth company to receive such licences from the Securities and Exchange Commission of Cambodia (SECC). Speaking at the licence handover and official inauguration ceremony on Wednesday, SECC director-general Sou Socheat said Gold Whale has received three business licences from the SECC related to its fund management operations. "The fund management company has the right to raise money from the public to invest in any project, and all of its projects must first be registered with the SECC," he said. Socheat said a fund management company refers to a business which enters into so-called "joint ventures" with public participation to fund projects and share their benefits. Gold Whale CEO and director Jones Kam-Fung Chan said the firm's fund management business will focus on investment and generate profit for its investors. "We will focus on investments that benefit the project participants through financial restructuring, investment management, portfolio management, product development and risk management," said Chan. ### CAMBODIA : Ministry highlights rise in direct flights with Asean countries, China

The number of direct flights linking Cambodian cities to destinations in Asean and China has surged in recent months, according to a recent report from the Ministry of Tourism. In a brief report, the Ministry notes that the Kingdom is now connected with eight countries in the Asean region Singapore, Thailand, Laos, Vietnam, Malaysia, Myanmar, the Philippines, and Indonesia. Khek Norinda, Cambodia Airports communications director the company that manages all three international airports in the Kingdom told Khmer Times that the international airports in Siem Reap, Sihanoukville and Phnom Penh together handled an average of 760 flights to and from Asean destinations per week in May. “In June, we added six weekly flights with the launch of a new route between Jakarta and Phnom Penh,” he pointed out. The number of direct flights with China is also markedly on the rise. Cambodian airports now handle about 500 flights to and from destinations in China every week. The State Secretariat of Civil Aviation this week said Phnom Penh is connected with 23 cities in China by air, while Siem Reap and Sihanoukville are linked to 23 and 15 destinations in that country, respectively. ### CAMBODIA : Rice association to meet with EU to discuss tariffs

The Cambodia Rice Federation plans to meet with the European Commission to discuss the tariffs imposed on Cambodian rice earlier this year, according to a representative of the association. CRF secretary-general Lun Yeng told Khmer Times last week that the association intends to meet representatives of the European Union to explain why taxing Cambodian rice is a mistake. He said CRF wants to put an end to the “misunderstanding” that has led to the levies in the first place. The announcement by CRF marks a change in the strategy to battle the tariffs that hit the local rice sector earlier this year. In April, CRF filed a complaint to the EU over the tariffs. However, CRF has yet to receive any response from Brussels regarding the complaint, Mr Yeng told Khmer Times. Mr Yeng said the strategy is now to negotiate with the EU and to show European legislators that exports of Cambodian rice do not threaten the livelihoods of European farmers. “In April, CRF filed a complaint with the EU. Now, we continue this work, but we will change our approach. We will meet with the EU and explain the issue because we believe that the EU is missing vital information that has led them to take the wrong course of action,” Mr Yeng said. (Khmer Times)

CAMBODIA : Kampong Speu targeted for smart city project

The Cambodian province of Kampong Speu is on the road to hosting a smart city. Information from the Singaporean blockchain firm PLMP Fintech disclosed that the Council for the Development of Cambodia has recently given a green light to the project known as ‘Creatanium Blockchain Smart City’. Approval from CDC means a project’s implementation can proceed. The CDC is the government’s highest-level decision-making body for private and public sector investment. The proposed smart city will be located inside the 300-hectare Kong Pisei Special Economic Zone in Kong Pisei district. Peter Lim, PLMP Fintech strategist, said in a company press release that the area is an excellent site for a smart city. “We have a city, a population, and the associated business activities: the ideal ground to implement our suite of blockchain solutions, ranging from property management through smart contracts to e-payments,” he explained. According to PLMP Fintech, a big part of the SEZ would be allocated to them for different aspects of the project. “One-fifth of the land has been allocated to PLMP Fintech for the construction and management of a residential cluster with condominium, semi-detached, detached and terrace units for the SEZ’s population of Cambodian professionals and international expats,” the press release said. It said the area will also include shophouses and a shopping mall to host the linked service industry. (Khmer Times)

SOUTH KOREA : South Korean president invests in local firms fund amid Japan row

South Korean President Moon Jae-in has put more than 50 million won (around $41,000) of his own money into a fund investing in firms looking to replace Japanese suppliers, his office said yesterday, as the Asian neighbours remain locked in a bitter trade dispute. South Korean President Moon Jae-in has put more than 50 million won (around $41,000) of his own money into a fund investing in firms looking to replace Japanese suppliers, his office said, as the Asian neighbours remain locked in a bitter trade dispute. It was the first-ever stock market investment by Mr Moon, a former human rights lawyer whose economic policies critics blame for slowing growth in the once-booming South. Seoul and Tokyo are embroiled in a tit-for-tat row that has seen them remove each other from their lists of trusted trade partners, raising concerns in Washington, which has security treaties with both. Tokyo imposed restrictions on exports crucial to tech giants such as Samsung following a series of South Korean court rulings ordering Japanese firms to pay for forced labour during World War II.
